Staff:

Here is a proposed school calendar for next year. It is basically the same as this year's where we have a shorter Christmas break, but graduation and the last day for students is the Friday before Memorial Day. I also left the long President's Day weekend like we have this year. I tried to avoid Mondays for conferences, but may have issues there depending on what the athletic schedule looks like. The other main difference is that it only has 171 student days instead of 172. It would be hard to get in 172 and be done before Memorial Day. We could take a day off Christmas break, and then have two student days after Memorial Day. We have done that before. Also, we may end up having Open House on Tuesday, August 28, instead of Wednesday, August 29, as we are working with Mid-State for another area meeting on one of the workshop days like we had this year.

Check it over to see if I made any mistakes. Any feedback or comments is welcomed,
